EFFORT WON KING'S CUP

First Holder of Challenge Trophy
Presented by King Edward.

Newport, R.I., Aug. 9.—After an exciting race over a 37-mile triangular course, the 60 foot sloop "Effort" owned by E. M. Smith, New York, won the cup donated by King Edward to the New York Yacht Club as a perpetual challenge trophy. The "Queen" built especially to win this cup, finished first of all the starters of which there were eight. "Yankee," Barry Maxwell's 70 footer, finished second, and "Vigilant" third. "Queen" was compelled to allow "Effort" twenty minutes and 43 seconds and the latter, making a sensational race with spinnaker set, hullion filling and top sail straining, flashed over the line exactly nine seconds within the time allowance. Deep interest attached to the outcome of this race, not only because of the calibre of the yachts entered, but because of the identity of the donor of the cup. Sir Mortimer Durand, the King's representative, was on board the North Star, Commodore Vanderlief's steam yacht and all in all the affair had a decidedly regal aspect.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Macled, Aug. 8.—The legislators spent a delightful day at Banff yesterday. John McPherson, M.P.P., won the championship swimming in the basin. The sail on Devil's Lake was most enjoyable and the C. P. R. hotel did itself proud at the luncheon. A reception was held in Calgary, but owing to some misunderstanding it was not largely attended. Today the party came south. At Okotoks, Hign River, Nanton and Stavelly they were met by citizens of the towns, but at Clareholm the band was out and some fine samples of grain were on exhibition. A short stop was made at Leavins. A great deal of fall wheat is being sown along the Calgary-Macled line and is being put in early this year. R. A. Wallace, of High River, Chas. Clark, of the High River Times, and Messrs. Varley and Ballachy of the same town, joined the party for a short run. Messrs. Hotchkiss and A. B. McDonald joined the party at Clareholm. The run this afternoon will be to Pincher Creek, Coleman, and Frank, returning to Macled tonight, where a reception will be held. Everybody is delighted with the splendid fields of grain and generally good prospects apparent on every side in southern Alberta.

FEATHERSTONE TO BE TRIED

For the Murder of Miss Dalton at Nanaimo

At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing in the Featherstone trial, for the murder of Mary Jane Dalton, the prisoner was committed for trial on a charge of murder. The case will come up for trial at the Nanaimo assizes in October.

From the Nanaimo Herald further particulars are obtainable respecting the preliminary trial of Featherstone. "The small room in the upper story was crowded almost to suffocation by an immense number of people, the majority of whom were curious to get a glimpse of the man accused of a horrible murder."

"Nothing in the new evidence against the accused was produced at last night's trial. The only witnesses examined were Dr. O'Brien, Constable Stephenson and W. N. Lenfestey, an expert on firearms who resides in Victoria."

"Constable Stephenson declared the court opened and Superintendent Hussey called on Dr. O'Brien to give evidence. The doctor's evidence was the same as given by him at the inquest."

After his evidence had been given the doctor was cross-examined by Superintendent Hussey as follows: "Q. You say you found marks on the back of the prisoner's hand. Can you form any opinion as to how the marks were made?"

"A. I would not like to say how they were made. They were about an eighth of an inch in width, about half an inch separated from each other, and were about a sixteenth of an inch in width. As to how deep they were into the flesh I cannot say, as I did not make a close examination."

"Q. Did the cuts appear to be old, or were they made shortly before you noticed them?"

"A. I think they had been made five or six hours before I noticed them. The blood was partly dried. I should say it was blood that had coagled out five or six hours previously. The scratches were covered by a cloth."

"Q. Did the prisoner make any statements about the founds on his hands?"

"A. He did not. I could not say whether the hands had been washed or not."

"By Mr. Simpson—If the wounds on the prisoner's hands were caused by a scratch, would there be blood under the finger nails of the deceased?"

"A. I think not. The chances are very strong that there would not be."

"Q. In your opinion were the wounds on the prisoner's hands caused by a

Telephone Improvements Needed

Mr. McEwen, who was secured by the city council to look over the city telephone system, presented his report to the council on Tuesday evening. The report is headed: "Notes of the expert improvements in the present equipment and methods of the telephone system in Edmonton."

The engineer considers the greatest difficulty under which the present system is suffering is the large traffic per line. He observes that the quality of any telephone service depends on promptness of connecting, accuracy and the character of the voice transmission. With the present equipment here, none of these is of a high order. The cause lies in the central office.

A transfer switchboard is only suitable for offices of 200 or 300 subscribers. There is no way of converting the present transfer type of switchboard to the multiple type.

The reason for the high rate of callings per line in Edmonton is that 66 per cent of the subscribers are commercial, and but 34 per cent are residence stations. Coupled with this is the fact that the total number of telephone stations is much smaller than the commercial development of the city warrants, so that a large number of citizens habitually use telephones leased by others, thus serving in a measure all the telephone needs of the community over too few lines.

The expert recommends the following improvements as possible of application at reasonable expense. All the Strathcona trunk lines and all toll lines from neighboring towns, terminate before the regular "subscriber" operators, and in various positions on the switchboard. These trunk and toll lines should be detached and placed upon a separate switchboard, which need not be elaborate. All calls from Strathcona and outside points would thus come to a special operator. Call circuits and order keys should be provided between the suburban switchboard and the local switchboard, enabling incoming calls to be placed direct to the operator who can reach the called line locally. This would relieve the local operators of all the burdensome inquiry concerning out of town calls, of writing tickets on them and of trunking such calls from one of the switchboard sections to another, as is now necessary.

A considerable part of the nervous strain under which the operators are now working, comes from the noise in the room. This arises from two causes. One is the necessary amount of speaking between operators necessary to carry out the trunking, and the other is the character of the telephone equipment used. As a consequence of this, each operator must speak loudly in order to overcome general noises and this makes it less easily possible for her to hear the subscriber.

Two things should be done; first, breast transmitters should be installed, and each given a sufficient battery supply to make it fairly sensitive. The second is that order circuit buttons be installed at each position, one each for the positions to which each operator needs to make transfer calls. Call circuits from these buttons shall reach each to its proper operator's set, and all transfer orders shall be given by telephone, instead of through the air as at present.

—Henry Callaghan, escaped from the Alberta penitentiary this morning about 3.30 o'clock. The prisoner was first missed by Deputy Warden Stedman, within fifteen minutes from the time he could have escaped. He had apparently divested himself of his prison garb, and made off in only his prison underwear, which is marked M.136 P. The officials have no idea how he escaped or whether he was aided in his attempt.

The prisoner was serving a term of three years, having been convicted of theft in Calgary, June 15th last.

He is 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches in height, aged 42 and has black hair, with a weeks' growth of black beard. He is thick set, stout, and weighs nearly 250 lbs.

The guards are searching in the immediate vicinity with the mounted police. The police are watching the trains at Strathcona and Edmonton.

The news of the escape has been wired to all police officers in the province and every effort is being made to effect his capture. It is probable the prisoner disappeared over the cut bank of the river and is trying to make his way down the river. The bridges here and at the Port are being closely guarded.

A. Garbe, late of the town transfer, came in on the 4:30 afternoon train from Millet, where he had been on business. Mr. Garbe is now Yellow Head Pass and look over the ranching prospects there with a view to locate in that part.

A fairly good representative meeting convened in the Orange hall here last week on the occasion of the formation of a Carpenters' union. A. D. Campbell of Edmonton and other gentlemen addressed the meeting, which was quite harmonious and anxious to join a union. The many benefits to be derived from a union were shown when a union was conducted on common sense principles. The following were the officers elected:

President—A. D. Campbell, Edmonton.

Vice-President—J. Grittauer, Strathcona.

Sec'y-Treas.—Mr. Hestly, Strathcona.

Cor-Sec'y.—Mr. Durand, Strathcona.

scratch?" "A. I could not say. At the time I examined them they appeared to me to be wider than scratches made by finger nails, but I could not be definite."

"Provincial Constable Stephenson on being sworn gave the same evidence as submitted by him at the inquest. In reply to questions asked by Superintendent Hussey, Mr. Stephenson, he said:

"I examined the pistol as soon as it was handed to me by Nicholas. It had the appearance of having been recently discharged. It was empty. The inside of the barrel was black, and the edges of the cylinder were also, slightly colored. The inside of the barrel has changed its color since I saw it first; then it was black, and now it is somewhat of a grayish color."

"By Mr. Simpson—Was there any difference in the color of the empty shells found on the track and the ones found in the house?"

Constable Stephenson—Yes; the shells were somewhat darker; but there is one shell among the five loaded ones found on the table which is also dark, and resembles very much the two found on the track. The shells may be darkened by exposure to the weather, or again they will go that way by being carried in a revolver for any length of time. I examined the pistol at the Nicholas house shortly after 7 o'clock on the night of the murder, it was not so dark but I could examine it quite plainly.

William Nicholas, Lentest, gun and ammunition dealer of Victoria, next gave evidence as to the make of pistol, etc. He said pistol produced is an Iver Johnson revolver, double action, 38 calibre, No. 51876. The gun has apparently been discharged. The barrel is dirty and the cylinders are all equally dirty. The pistol has not been cleaned since it was discharged. The cartridges produced and marked Exhibit B are all proper cartridges to fit the revolver. They are Peters shells marked S. & W. The empty shells shown me are all of the same make and calibre as the loaded one.

The "Semi-ready" franchise in a town is as valuable as a public utility franchise! It gives the monopoly of merit in men's clothes.

Only one dealer in a town can sell the real "Semi-ready."

Dealers who did not get the franchise for the prosperous towns are sorry, though they declined it seven years ago on the ground that the profit fixed by the makers was a small one. They argued they could make bigger profits selling ordinary ready-mades.

The real profit in Semi-ready tailoring is the many sales made and the ease with which goods can be sold when the maker gives the guarantee bond found in every pocket of every Semi-ready garment. New customers of Semi-ready are regular patrons.

THE VACANT COMMISSIONER-SHIP

The retirement of Mr. Hargreaves leaves a vacancy in the board of city commissioners which should be filled as quickly as reasonable but which should be filled under conditions which will prevent a recurrence of the unpleasant condition of affairs obtaining in the public works department for several months past.

The appointment of a successor to Mr. Hargreaves is not optional with the council. The charter provides that the "commissioners shall be three in number, two of whom shall be appointed by a three-fourths vote of the whole council," the third member being the mayor ex officio. An amendment was asked for at the last session of the Legislature leaving the number of appointed commissioners at the discretion of the council but this clause was thrown out. The council are therefore under the obligation to fill the vacancy in the commission.

There should be no unnecessary delay in selecting the new commissioner, for his services are as badly needed now as they are likely to be needed for some time. The burden both of work and of responsibility resting on the commission is heavier now than ever before and if a third commissioner was needed heretofore he is certainly not less necessary in the present and the immediate future. The program of public works now under way is of greater importance, of greater extent and of greater cost than any the city is likely to again undertake for several years and if the advice of a third commissioner is to be needed at all in the reasonably near future it is while this program is being completed. This is especially so if the intention is to continue the system heretofore in force and make the new appointee head of the public work department.

This, of course, is very different from urging that the appointment should be a hasty one, for no circumstances are urgent enough to justify the appointment of a man whose capability is not assured. The two remaining commissioners should be closely enough in touch with the work in hand to carry it on satisfactorily until a desirable selection can be made for the vacancy. In any event they are more likely to carry it on successfully alone than if handicapped by a third member of uncertain ability.

To ensure the smooth working of the civic machinery the council should determine beyond question the basis on which the new appointment is made, whether because of engineering qualifications or business ability. And this in turn should be largely determined by the decision as to whether the departmental system is to be continued or whether the commissioners are to have common authority over every department and to be held individually responsible for the work of every department. If the latter plan is to be attempted the present and all appointments to the board should be on the basis of business ability rather than technical knowledge or experience.

If the new commissioner is to be made head of the public works department it should be clearly understood whether his choice is due to engineering ability or administrative ability and the relationships between the council, the commissioner and the employees of the public works department should be defined beyond any doubt. If an engineer be selected he should be one whose recognized abilities as an engineer would make him head of the department in fact as well as in name, should be given authority commensurate with his capability and he held responsible for the technical work of his department. If the choice be made on the ground of executive ability this too should be made clear and the city engineer made answerable for the work requiring technical knowledge. If the appointment be made because of administrative ability a smattering of engineering knowledge should not be considered an additional qualification. "A little learning is a dangerous thing" when it is possessed by the head of a department who is disposed to interfere with the plans of an inferior employee with superior attainments.

ST. PETERSBURG RG STRIKE GROWS MORE SERIOUS

St. Petersburg, Aug. 6.—The situation here is growing more threatening hourly as the strike is growing and danger of violence increases. Shops are closed owing to the proprietors' fear of outbreaks. Strong patrols of policemen occupy the streets and troops are held ready. Strikers and policemen clashed at Sestroretsk station, eight policemen being killed. The fighting caused the greatest excitement.

Minor strikes occurred at York, Ekaterinovsk and elsewhere throughout the provinces.

The Nova districts are carefully patrolled and extra steamers with quick firing guns have been pressed into service. An attempt to organize a railroad strike failed.

Helsingfors, Aug. 4.—The general strike here which began during the mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, ended this morning. The Socialist portion of the strikers split in two as the moderate condemned Red Guards action in participating in the disorders.

At the time the mutineers surrendered 800 of them were taken prisoners and locked up. Over 600 are missing. Mutineers had only enough provisions to last half a day. During the fighting in Helsingfors Socialist Red Guards used dum-dum bullets against the soldiers.

WATCH US GROW!

The census returns made public a few days ago gave a good idea of the growth of the city during the past half-decade. From is a record of which we have no reason to be ashamed. Here's another indication just as reliable and it tells the same tale. Previous to 1905 no record was kept of the amount of building being done in the city. Last year and this year permits have had to be taken out and while these may not show all the building being done they show enough to be a fair gauge of the progress of the city. In 1905 the building permits totaled $718,000.00.

... 2626 in 1901 to 11,534 in 1906 ...

UP TO AUG. 3, THIS YEAR building permits had reached the grand total of $1,035,675, with a strong possibility that this will reach the $2,000,000 mark before December 31st. Show us a city on the American continent with a population of 11,500, with such a building record.

SHARE IN THE GROWTH.

What does this mean to the man who has a smaller or larger amount of money to invest? If it means anything it means that the increase in value has not at all ceased, but that there is every probability that values will increase just as rapidly for some time as they have done in the past. The man who invests now invests in a sure thing and cannot fail to reap a rich reward. The City is growing West rapidly—prices are steadily increasing in that direction—buying there is absolutely safe. Undoubtedly the very finest suburban property in the West is which lies between the West End City Park and the city. Large Lots, on beautiful rising ground, 20 foot lanes, right alongside the city boundary, on the St. Albert trail. Prices from $100 up; one-third cash, balance in one and two years. We will drive you out—say when.

Edmonton's Promising Future

Peterborough Examiner: Mr. J. A. Pike, B. A., who for many years was on the staff of the college institute here and who since May last has been living in Edmonton, where he occupies a position on the high school staff, is in the city on a visit and for the purpose of moving his family to his new home. Mr. Pike is greatly pleased with the west and with Edmonton especially. He expects to remain here until about August 15th, when the whole family will leave for the west. In an interview this morning Mr. Pike gave the Examiner some interesting information regarding the new capital of Alberta. He said:

"Gilbert Parker in a recent number of the Canadian Monthly said that 'no city in the world had a finer situation than Edmonton', and any one who visits it will readily agree with him.

"Crowning the high bank on the north shore of the Northern Saskatchewan, it overlooks that swiftly-flowing stream, bearing away in a northerly direction and carrying with it, at this season a large quantity of sediment to help in the formation of new land to the east of us.

"The view is simply charming, and a description of it is far beyond the powers of my halting English. Suffice it to say, that as far as the eye can see, east, west and south, stretch in encircling beauty, the spruce and poplar glad banks of the river while to the south, about a mile and a half distant, nestles the flourishing town of Strathcona.

"A gentleman, who, the other day was standing gazing up the river valley was heard to remark that he had sailed into the Bay of Naples and had visited many of the world's beautiful places, but he had never seen any place, which for natural beauty, could compare with that upon which he was then looking."

"The growth of the city since 1902 has been marvellous—a population of 14,000 being now claimed, and it must be increasing rapidly for every incoming train brings large numbers.

"Everywhere from early morning until late at night, the clink, clink, of the mason's trowel and the buzz of the carpenter's saw may be heard, and it is quite within the mark to state that fully 1,500 people are living in tents, some of them because they cannot secure houses to rent and others who refuse to pay the exorbitant rates asked for rooms and board.

"Edmonton has many buildings which would do credit to a place of longer growth. Among them are two fine brick public schools, erected two or three years ago at a cost of $16,000 each.

"The high school is less pretentious, but it is said that we are soon to have a new one, keeping with the city's 'up-to-date' standing.

"Alberta College is a large preparatory school under the control of the Methodist body and last year had an enrollment of 300 students.

"The Roman Catholic are at present building a large school at an estimated cost of $46,000.

"The Presbyterians, Baptists, Anglicans and Roman Catholics have beautiful churches and the Methodist body find McDougall church too small and have decided to build.

"In addition to the above provision for intellectual moral and religious training the city can boast of three splendid hospitals, the Roman Catholic General and Maternity Hospital and the City General Hospital.

"The banks, of which there are 14, are buildings which any eastern city might be proud of, and there are many fine commercial houses.

"The city is quite modern in its management of its civic affairs, having public electric lighting, and has persistently refused to grant to any company a franchise for the running of an electric railway, as it intends to build and operate the latter as soon as conditions warrant the undertaking.

"Single tax, too, is in vogue, and the city's business is managed by paid commissioners.

"In natural resources the Edmonton district is very rich. The soil is a deep vegetable loam with a good clay sub-soil, and at present is almost too rich, but will improve with tillage. It produces the very finest of oats and barley, and also a good sample of wheat, but its cultivation has been limited on account of the difficulty in marketing, but with the increase of railway facilities there is no doubt that this part of the province will contribute largely to the filling of the world's bread basket.

"A trip east last week from two points—Wetaskiwin and Lacombe—for a distance of about one hundred miles, afforded an opportunity to learn something of the country's stock-producing capabilities. Thousands of cattle and horses, sleek and fat, knee deep in rich grasses and wild prairie, roam the boundless prairies.

"Rich pasture certainly is in abundance, and one is informed that in this district it is only rarely in winter that stock of any kind requires feeding.

"Probably Edmonton's finest resource is her coal, of which there seems to be an almost inexhaustible supply, and of a very good quality. It is a semi-bituminous variety, and gives excellent satisfaction for household purposes.

"Several mines are in operation close to the city, one of which your correspondent visited recently. It is 2 1/2 miles east on the river bank and has only been in operation since February last. A short descent of 60 feet down the main shaft lands one in a large room the walls of which are about six feet high and composed of beautiful, shiny coal with scarcely a pebble in the way of impurity. From this central room extend four or five alleys, which widen out into other rooms bounded everywhere by the same lustrous wall of coal.

"An hour spent at even this short distance below the surface of the ground, watching the miner wield his pick and shovel in cramped and sometimes dangerous positions, with no light save that afforded by a wax candle, and in a damp and chilly atmosphere, makes one thankful that he is privileged to labor above ground and to think that coal put in your cellar at from $2.50 to $3 per ton is remarkably cheap.

"Real estate in the city is very high; business sites, centrally located, have changed hands at $500 per foot frontage, and one sale of $800 per foot frontage is reported. It is the opinion of many that business property will reach a still higher level in the near future.

"The area of desirable residential property is somewhat limited and consequently high priced, ranging from $2000 to $3000 for lots 50x150 feet close to the river bank, and from $1000 to $1500 for those further back. Farm lands are rising rapidly in value owing to the great influx of population from the western states. These people coming from a country in which lands are high priced consider our lands at $8, $10 or $12 per acre very cheap and many of them are buying heavily and are firmly of the opinion that this land will in the very near future command $20 to $30 per acre.

"The climate so far as I am able to judge both from personal observation and hearsay is all that can be desired. Long sunny days with lovely cool nights have been the rule since my arrival on April 12th. Have not been up early enough to see the sun rise yet, but have heard the birds whistling at 2:30 a.m., and it is light enough to read without lamp-light at 9:45 p.m. In fact one scarcely knows when it is time to go to bed.

"June and July are months when most of the rain falls, and when it rains it does it in good style, and the adhesive properties of the mud are first-class.

"The temperatures for the past two weeks have been pretty high, the thermometer ranging from about 75 to 89 degrees during the day which is a little higher than you are accustomed to in Peterborough.

"Everybody speaks of the beautiful autumn and winters, but I shall be able to speak with more authority regarding these seasons when I have had my nose frozen a few times.

"Growth has been very rapid during the last six weeks, the crops look first class and there is every prospect of a bountiful harvest.

"The population is a veritable one—English, Irish, Scotch, Danes, Swedes, Germans, Indians, French half-Scotch, half-breeds and French half-Scotch, etc., etc. I have noticed that breed of the half-breeds want to be considered Scotch, and will tell you their names are McKay, McPerson, etc.

"I consider the future of Edmonton as well as the whole of the west very promising."

ST. ALBERT MEMBER AT COAST

Tells a Coast Paper of Alberta Affairs and the Bright Future of this Province

Vancouver Province—Mr. H. W. McKenney, member for St. Albert Division in the legislative assembly of Alberta, is at present staying at the Badminton hotel with his family, having come to Vancouver on a short holiday. He very kindly gave an interview to a representative of the Province this morning, although he was just about to start with his party for a drive to Stanley Park.

Mr. McKenney's interests are especially identified with Edmonton, although he used terms of very high praise when referring to the public spirit, energy and rapid progress shown by Calgary. Asked what he thought of the figures from the recent provement, the Saskatchewan could be rendered navigable for twelve hundred miles down to Lake Winnipeg. The establishing of Edmonton as a divisional point on the transcontinental line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway would make its future secure. The purchase of six hundred and forty acres adjoining the city on the north for the workshops and freight sheds gave facilities for indefinite expansion of traffic; and the passenger station of the Canadian Northern in Edmonton, already the finest in the west with the exception of the C.P.R. depot in Vancouver, would be greatly extended when it was made into a union station for the use of the Grand Trunk Pacific as well.

Mr. McKenney, vice-President of the Grand Trunk Pacific who had come to Edmonton the day before Mr. McKenney left, had mentioned that the line would reach the city by the Clover Bar crossing, and not by Strathcona; and construction work was expected to begin at once.

Coming to Edmonton itself Mr. McKenney said that the crops in that district never looked so well as at present, while as regards business, during his long residence in the country he had never known a time in which the trade of the place had been approached by that of any other in the west. During the past three weeks, the lowest weekly bank clearings had been nearly $500,000, while the highest had exceeded $1,000,000. Several important companies had large establishments there; while the great stores of the Hudson's Bay company probably contained more merchandise under one roof than any establishment in Vancouver. The site for the new parliament buildings was being selected, and he believed that the group would be as impressive when finished as those which formed the chief ornament of Victoria. It was fully expected that the university of Alberta would be situated at Edmonton, which would complete the prestige of the place.

Turning to political affairs, Mr. McKenney spoke very highly of Premier Rutherford, while he attributed the placing of the capital at Edmonton to the skill and ability of Attorney-General Cross. The Minister of Public Works, Mr. Cushing, a very successful and hard working administrator, had promised to make a tour with Mr. McKenney through the St. Albert Division on his return with a view to the selection of routes for early road construction.

Mr. McKenney like all other visitors to Vancouver had been struck with the beauty of its situation and surroundings, which he hoped to investigate during his stay with benefit and pleasure to himself.

Battleford Herald: On Friday F. W. Otton, a game guardian, seized two antelope which had been brought to town by Solomon Wells for sale, and the latter was fined $50 for having them in his possession. Subsequently Otton sold the antelope and his right to do so is to be tested in the courts.

Rocky Mountain Echo: The growth of Lethbridge fair has kept pace with the development of the province, till now it is the most representative exhibition of Southern Alberta. The prize list has been carefully revised and generous prizes are offered in classes. Live stock men have always been pleased with their treatment here. Increased stabling for horses has been provided this year. The poultry show is always a leader. Free coops are furnished for all birds. Expert judges will place the awards.

Regina Standard: Your delegates desire to pay a tribute to the hospitality shown them by the Edmonton board of trade and by the citizens generally during the convention. The efforts which were made to secure the comfort and entertainment of the delegates were thoroughly appreciated, and it is safe to say that all of them went away with an excellent impression of Edmonton's hospitality.

Regina Standard: "It speaks a good deal for the financial standing of the city that with local improvements in hand we are able to strike a 15 mill rate this year," said Mayor McArthur last night in explanation of the city budget, adding that Regina have every reason to be proud of the unique position which she occupies among Canadian cities.

Regina Standard: "Cattle raising in the southern portion of Saskatchewan is falling off and the quality of the stock raised is steadily decreasing," said W. J. Tudge, cattle buyer for the Regina Trading Company to the Standard this morning. Mr. Tudge has today returned from a trip through the eastern portion of the province and while on his rounds he has taken in all the local fairs in order that he might pick up whatever fat stock was offering. The above is the conclusion he has come to after inspecting the stock all over the country.

Moose Jaw Signal: The Chicago capitalists who are interesting themselves in the local meat packing enterprise, are now in Winnipeg and are expected to arrive here on Tuesday. They will bring with them complete plans and specifications, and will be accompanied by an architect familiar with the construction of such buildings as are required for the work. In the meantime the stock lists of the company with prospectus is in the hands of Mr. Loree, the manager of the Bank of Hamilton, who will supply any information desired. $30,000 is the amount which it is desired to have subscribed in this city and district.

HOW TO WARM SLIPPERS

"Young Wife" writes: "I am very fond of reading advice to newly married folk. Recently I saw a hint that every husband is gratified if he finds his slippers ready warmed for him when he comes home of an evening. Please advise me as to the proper way to warm slippers." To her the Minneapolis Tribune gives this sage advice: Go to the cellar and get a hod of coal. You should have a slow fire going in the kitchen range during the afternoon. Bake the coals down to a level bed and pour in the hod of coal and open the draughts. When the stovepipe shows red to the ceiling, and the top of the stove is a cream yellow, and so not that a drop of water will evaporate when within two inches of the surface, close the damper and wait until the range cools down to 485 degrees Fahrenheit. If you have no thermometer, borrow one from a neighbor. (It is a small courtesy but one that will be appreciated if you suggest to your neighbor to bring her husband's slippers to warm them on your range.) Put the slippers in the oven; close the door, and go through the house, singing merrily to yourself. From time to time look at the slippers, turning them occasionally so that the heat may reach all sides of them. They are well warmed when the toes begin to curl. When this occurs place them on the back of the range, covering them with a boiler lid. This will retain the heat. When you hear your husband coming up the steps take up the slippers on a toasting fork and carry them to his den. Some practical housewives garnish with parsley, but this is a matter of choice.

Why everybody likes Abbey's Salt.

It is so pleasant to the taste that even children take it with pleasure. It does not "cake" or flake on top of the water.

It effervesces slowly—may be drunk leisurely, without choking or blinding the user like sedlitz powders.

The granules all dissolve—thus the full benefit of the salt is obtained with every dose.

It is the ideal laxative and tonic to purify the blood—regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels—and build up the system.

Alberta's First Provincial Fair

(From the Nor'West Farmer)

The first provincial fair for Alberta was held at Edmonton on July 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th. The directorate, loyally backed by the city, were ambitious to make the inaugural exhibition a success. Even so, according to the "after the fair" talk, they succeeded. The directors were a lively and energetic bunch. Mr. Morris was president and Jack Mercer vice. They sawing the heavy end of the entertainment for the thousands in the grand stand. Sheriff Robertson was in the front of the public comfort, and every other director gave a helping hand in the same direction. Then in the separate departments, there were John McPherson, Tom Dalby, and W. D. Curran, for live stock, with Garripy, Charlie May, J. H. Pearce and Tom Bellamy on the exhibits and grounds, and the smoothness with which the event was pulled off shows how they operated.

A summer fair, of course, cannot bring out the same quantity or quality of agricultural and garden products as a fall fair, and on this account the summer fair seems to stand for a big concession to the love for transitory sport, and does not in reality give as much chance to see what the country can do and give an opportunity, in a big contagious sort of way, for the liberal fruits of the year—and we cannot give over liking this side of the show. The industrial features should be dominant in a provincial fair, too. The educational aspects should be stronger than the sporting and spectacular.

It would appear from the prize list that the directors of the Edmonton fair wish to give the strongest inducements to farm exhibits of all sorts. The prize money for stock was doubled this year, and the effect is plainly seen in the great increase in stock exhibits. Horses, cattle, sheep and swine entries were doubled in almost all cases. Horsesmen from British Columbia and cattlemen from Manitoba, were in this year, besides a large number of new exhibitors of all classes of stock within the province. A very favorable sign was that a large part of the new stock was in the registered classes. Horses, cattle, sheep and swine entries were doubled in every section of the class for registered draught horses; competition in the Shorthorn class was doubled, if not tripled, and registered sheep and swine were in the ascendant.

In the registered draught sections John Turner, of Calgary, was the principal exhibitor, and captured the most coveted award, except in the brood mare with foal at side section. His aged stallion, Consul, won sweepstakes in the draught class with Percherons, Shires, and some other good classes in the mix-up. His two year old filly was greatly admired. The aged stallion section was without a poor horse. The Shire, Plaid, and the Shire shown by their Spruce Grove neighbors is a nice clean, smart horse, of good conformation. Fraser and Fraser showed a useful kind of team in the registered class.

The unregistered draught agricultural and general purpose sections were all pretty well filled with useful stock. As a rule, it was not in very high fit, but the good quality of the young stock, and the increasing number of special volumes for the rapid growth of the horse breeding industry. Some of the teams brought out were in no fit at all, and were necessarily plain to begin with; and Judge Kydd properly declined to get eloquent with red ribbons in such cases. Good teams, however, were shown in the general purpose class. The light horse classes showed a great improvement in quality. There were some young things being well looked after in the road class by such fellows as Jim Faris, of Red Deer, Lyons, and McNulty, of Strathcona, besides quite a number of individual fanciers and owners. In the light horse championship, there were half a dozen aspirants representing Hackney, Standard-bred, Cleveland Bay and other classes. E. McNeil, of Golden, B.C. got the award with a very nicely finished Thoroughbred. He is a beautiful color, of nice movement, exact in type, and of splendid symmetry and balance. The saddle classes did not bring out enough for competition, but one or two good animals were shown.

The carriage classes were good to look at in both singles and doubles. In the sixteen hands double, C. Robert had out a strong team of blacks in the fifteen to fifteen and three-quarter class. Archie York came on with a very stylish pair of solid bays, clean cut, will put up, nice actors, and good to look at. Robert came in second with a well-matched brown pair. E. K. Strathly won in the singles in very good company.

The chief exhibitors in cattle were Geo. Little of Lethbridge, A. K. Bennett, of Midnapore, A. F. McGill, of Lacombe, W. Gollig, of Edmonton, R. P. Ottewill of Clover Bar, J. Tough of Edmonton, and W. F. Cameron, of Strathcona. Geo. Kinross of Cottonwood, Sask., arrived too late for competition, but had some good ones. Little had a nice string of twelve. He secured first consideration in most of the female sections. His animals are nice and smooth, of good substance, and show good keep. He has a very creditable male with them. At the top of the bull sections were Bennett, in the aged class, with Trout Creek Hero, A. F. McGill, in the under two's with Crimmon General, Goley in the yearlings, and Little in the calf sections; and the four of them would be called good ones in any country. Trout Creek Hero is a fine combination of substance with pleasing qualities. Crimmon General was the tip-topper at Calgary Spring Show, and is a real aristocrat. Goley's was a winner as a calf, was first and reserve champion last year, and is a long, sappy roan with a well-filled top all the way through. Little has a good calf, a yearling, and a two-year-old. In the Herefords Jas Tough had the ring to himself. His hard a credit to himself and to the exhibition. He has a herd headed by the big Hereford kind and very beefy and smooth withal. He lingered among the best championship group for so long that Crimmon General changed unsually from one foot to the other; but McGill won out. McGill also got championship for west-bred bulls, and sweepstakes over all bred bulls, and sweepstakes over all bred bulls, and sweepstakes over all bred bulls. Tough's Herefords were even better than his males, and he will be heard from in Calgary. Only one Galway was shown.

W. F. Cameron had a nice string of Jerseys. He had the class to himself, but his stuff bespeaks the critical breeder and fancier, and had many admirers.

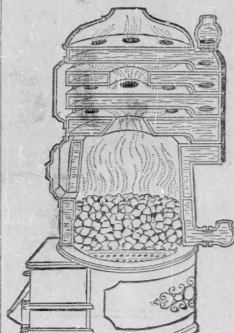

The province is, on the whole, glower in sheep than in any other class of live stock. Turner, of Calgary, was up to his year with a full class of Shrop, and A. J. Boyd, of Red Deer, with a lot of good Oxford. These were both good flocks, with finish and breed character as well. They showed together in what the directors were pleased to call short wool classes. Someone will draw easy money for a year or two owing to small competition; but it will have an educational value, and the competition will come. Then there should be no prizes for rams that are not pure ones, and not of the modern, bacon type. They were also all too fat. Tough had Yorkshires; Stevens, Morris and Hasko, Bernshires; Scammon, Cheshire; and Quebec Tamworths. Tough's, on the whole, were of the best general type, but Morris had some modern Berks. Tough won the Associated and C. N. R. bacon hog prizes; and a Tamworth boar of Quebec's won sweepstakes over all breeds.

There were a few good birds in the mature sections for Barred Plymouth Rocks, Light Brahmans, White Wyandottes, and Leghorns, but no good ones. The winners of the Canadian Strathcona and Mason of Edmonton, were the principal exhibitors.

CANADIAN CREAMERIES

The twelve government creameries in Alberta last year turned out for market 325,000 lbs of butter, which averaged 21.35 cents, says the New York Herald. The product was sold in British Columbia, Yukon, China and Japan. The government operates and turns over the entire net profits of these creameries to 1,200 farmers supplying the milk. Fifteen private creameries have also been established in Alberta and these exported in 1905, 550,000 pounds of butter.

During the last year Canada exported 34,529,795 pounds of butter valued at $7,010,799; cheese, 215,379, 587 pounds, valued at $22,237,540. The total value of the cheese, butter, bacon and hams exported from the Dominion in 1905, including October, amounted to $9,000,000 more than all the products of the forest (rough and manufactured) $15,000,000 more than all the grain and grain products exported from this country during that period. The exports of butter from the United States during 1905 were valued at $2,376,623, while the value of the cheese exported was only $935,994.

The Oxford Hot Water Boiler takes advantage of every known scientific point which will increase the generation and distribution of heat. We have increased its power enormously by making the walls of the fire pot slant inwards above the fire. This gives a greater surface for the direct action of the rays of heat.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

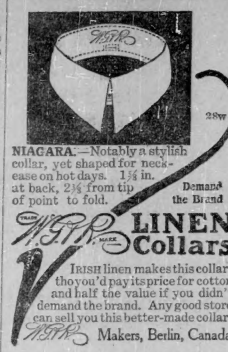

The first water section over the fire is double depth, with bell-shaped flues, which also increase the surface directly displayed to the action of the heat. These are but two of the scientific points which make the Oxford Hot Water Boiler the most economical and most efficient home-warming apparatus on the market. If you will drop us post card, we will send you our catalogue, which explains the whole system.

The One Right Steel Plate Range

Until we found out just the right way to use asbestos to keep the heat in a cooking range where it must cook the food instead of cooking the cook, every steel-plate range kept the kitchen broiling-hot. This range is a cool range—the top shield and lining is thick asbestos, so the heat stays inside the range and is better evened out. Food is better cooked, quicker cooked and cooked for less fuel-cost.

For Cleanly Cooking OXFORD CHANCELLOR BURNS WOOD OR COAL

Everything about it is cleanly—empty the ash-pit without fluffing ashes over everything; feed-pouch takes fuel without clutter and muss. Fuel does more cooking because this range has the right draft-control—sensitive, easily-governed—bring a fire up quick, cool it down quick.

CHINESE COOK THREW KNIFE.

High River Times.—Magistrate

Holmes had a very busy session on Tuesday morning. Tom Kee, the Chinese cook at the Alberta Hotel appeared before him on two charges of assault laid by Miss Lizzie Timinwho until Saturday last was a dining room girl at the Alberta. The first alleged assault took place some six weeks or two months ago, when in a fit of anger Tom threatened the complainant with a steel. The charge in this case was common assault and a fine of $5 and costs was imposed. The second charge was a more serious one.

It appears that on Wednesday last a huge carving knife escaped from the hand of this same Chinaman, who was struck full away at the time, in the back, passed through her clothes and wounded her. The charge in this case was assault occasioning bodily harm, for which the penalty is confine or imprisonment for three years.

The magistrate committed the accused to the next sitting of the court in Calgary, where it was argued on his behalf that there was no proof that he actually threw the knife or that it was not an accident. However the magistrate thought differently, and Tom will have to stand his trial before the higher court. In the meantime he was released on bail. The prosecution was represented by Mr. Ballache, while Mr. Varley and Mr. Nolan, of Calgary, appeared for the accused Chinaman.

THE SCHOOL ORDINANCE

To the editor of the Bulletin:
Sir,—If our school ordinance, like some other Territorial ordinances, should come up for revision, I think our legislators will find several instances in which, when strictly interpreted, it does not give effect to the good intentions of the framers. Take for instance the chapter on the "Conduct of Schools." Sec. 132 provides that the "school year shall begin on the first day of January," and Section 134 provides that any school open during the whole year the trustees may give from one to five weeks' holidays in winter, and that these holidays "shall commence on the twenty-fourth day of December." Now if they give only one week—that is seven days—the school must reopen on the 31st day of December; and if they give five weeks (beginning on December 24) the year must not end later than the 28th day of December. Yet Section 132 tells us that the year must end on the 31st day of that month. The intention, evidently, was to allow four weeks beginning on the first day of January and eight days at the end of the year.

Again, under the heading, "Payment of Teachers," we have Section 155, which provides that "if a teacher has taught more than 210 days in any calendar year, he shall only be entitled to a year's salary," while a teacher beginning his year on the first of January can earn a year's salary by teaching only 45 weeks. It is not at all probable that the Assembly intended to grant special favors to teachers who engage on the first day of January.

This section (155), too, discriminates against the teachers of "summer schools." If one of the latter takes four days to attend a teachers' institute in the fall—which, according to the regulations, he shall have the right to do—he loses four days' salary, for these can scarcely be called "actual teaching days within the period of his engagement"; but the teacher of a yearly school, if he begins his year at the proper time, may take the same four days and draw his full year's salary, for there are 210 teaching days exclusive of these.

A BAD ROAD

Editor Bulletin:—
For a piece of rough road that between Mill creek and the top of Dowler's Hill, takes the cake. It is almost impossible to bring a load of hay along it, the holes being deep enough to twist your reach and throw your load over. This road in its present state in a white man's country would be detrimental to business. Our representative, Mr. Rutherford, would do well to take a walk over this part of road mentioned and see if the complaint is genuine. Also the bridge at Gallagher's slaughterhouse is dangerous. Planks are worn through, making the bridge dangerous.
